

Activities

Kids activities:

- Pumpkin painting
- Kids Corner - Games & activities with prizes
- Petting zoo
- Face Painting
- Live Magician - Kevin Long
- Roz Puppets
- Kids 4" pie eating contest with medals awarded (ages 5-17)
- Adult 4" pie eating contest with trophy awarded (ages 18+)

Vendors:

- Multiple vendors, including goat's milk soap, bee keepers, quilling, blacksmith & knife making, crocheting, baked goods, and handmade artistry, and more.
- Educational vendors, including the Cass Conservation District, Sons of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, & MSU Forestry & Anthropology.

Entertainment:

- Meet & greet with local authors, Rose Wood & Merry Clark
- Wagon hayrides through Fred Russ Forest
- Tours of the historic Newton House
- Newton Family history by Allen Butchbaker
- Civil War re-enactors & artillery demonstrations
- Live music
- Blue Dart Art live painting
- Watch for our SURPRISE guest!!

Refreshments:

- Free apples, cookies, popcorn, donuts, cider, and water
- Maple Row Sugarhouse food truck

Visit the Cass County Historical Society Information tent for details on:

- CCHS membership
- New Member gift basket raffles
- Information on area historical sites
- Newton House brick fundraiser order forms
- Historical Commission plat maps & book sale
- Silent auction items

Event Schedule

11:00am - 12:00pm

Live Music from Lawless Jam
(entertainment tent)

Starting at 11:00am, and every 1/2 hour
Tractor drawn hayrides through Russ Forest (pickup & drop off in front of the house)

11:30am - 2:30pm

Magic Tricks by Kevin Long
(behind Newton House)

11:30am, 12:30pm, 1:30pm, & 2:30pm

Artillery Demonstrations - Robinson's Battery
(field behind the Newton House)

12:00pm - 2:00pm

Live Music from Waterbound
(entertainment tent)

12:30pm, 1:00pm, & 1:20pm

Roz Puppets - Silly Bits Show

1:30pm

Adult Pie Eating Contest (in front of house)
Register at information tent by 1:15pm

2:00pm

Kids Pie Eating Contest (in front of house)
Register at information tent by 1:15pm

2:00pm-3:00pm

Live banjo music (front porch)

Parking Tips

-Parking is available at Volinia Baptist Church.
Bus/Van shuttles are available from the church to and from the Newton House from 11am-3:00pm.
-Fred Russ Park Entrance #1: Follow the walking trail to the back entrance of the Newton House.

For safety reasons, please use extreme caution if walking along the roadside